

Our Vision Statement

At Montessori we respect the parents' leading role as their child's first educators.

Working alongside them, we aim to develop the child's innate confidence and desire to learn.

As a natural extension of the home, we offer stimulating and nurturing environments where we care for your child as a precious individual.

